UWR or CMS?

Effective Fall 2007*, the College of Education will no longer require students seeking admission to the Professional Education Programs at ECU to complete the UWR. The new Oral and Written Communication requirement for admission is outlined below.

Candidates applying for admission, and were admitted to the University fall 2007 and after, must complete these new requirements. Candidates admitted to the University prior to fall 2007, may choose to meet the new requirement or take the UWR. However, they should be encouraged to finish the UWR as soon as possible. Students who are able to use the UWR for admission to education programs would still have the requirement to complete CMS100 or CMS210 as part of their general education requirements.

Candidates should be encouraged to take an oral communication course early in their program as not to delay their admission.

New Requirement

F. Oral and Written Communication

- Oral communication: A grade of "C" or higher in CMS 100 or CMS 210
- Written Communication: A grade of "C" or higher in ENG 101 and ENG 102, or a grade of "C" or higher in HON 102, or a grade of "B" or higher in ENG 105 (those earning "C" must also take ENG 102).

*Although the requirements changed for students who were admitted to the university after Fall 2007, this change was implemented effective Summer 2008.
